

Changing Lives: Changing Your World

Haley came to New Day Camp for the first time in 2003 and her life was changed.

“Camp brought me closer to God. As a nine year old, camp fully developed the idea that God loves me.” Haley

Her father had gone to prison that year and she learned at camp that she was not alone.

“It helps to know that there are more kids like you – and helps you deal with problems knowing you are not the only kid that is not able to be with your parents.”

Now Haley is 15 years old. She is a youth leader at New Day Camp and a proud “Disciple of Jesus Christ.” She serves young children with parents in prison through the Redemption Kids ministry at Penn Avenue Redemption Church.

CJAMM changed Haley’s life.

As a servant leader, Haley is changing your world.

CJAMM is changing your world. CJAMM volunteers bring the gospel of Jesus Christ to prisoners in 94% of all Oklahoma prisons.

You can change your world by giving to CJAMM.

Do You Know?

- In Oklahoma, one out of 12 adults has either been in prison or is currently on probation for a felony charge.
- 55% of these offenders have children less than 18 years of age
- 40% have no high school diploma or GED
- 50% will earn less than $600/month
- The average non-violent offender will have four prior convictions.
- Oklahoma has the fourth highest incarceration rate in the country.
- Without intervention, 60% of children of incarcerated parents will become incarcerated adults.
