

OKVIM TRAINING 2010

Dear friends,

Last year, Oklahoma Volunteers In Mission sent over 200 mission teams into service here in Oklahoma and around the world.

Well-trained, dedicated team leaders led those missions. Without them, the wonderful work of VIM would be impossible. On the flip side of mission opportunities, VIM continually looks for mission sites where teams can work on projects.

Are you interested in learning more about being a VIM team leader or hosting mission teams? Do you know someone who may never have considered this kind of ministry but whom you believe has been given many gifts for mission service and leadership?

Here at Oklahoma VIM, we are praying that you will say "Yes!" to one or both of those questions. If you can say "Yes", please respond by registering yourself and/or inviting someone else to come to one of our 2010 OK VIM training opportunities.

Grace to you – and great peace in Christ,

Rev. Jeremy Basset,
Executive Director, Volunteers In Mission
